

The Cedar Creek Lake Area Chamber of Commerce is the umbrella organization for three chapters of the chamber, representing five cities on the north end of Cedar Creek Lake: Gun Barrel City, Kemp, Mabank, Tool and Seven Points.

An extremely active chamber of commerce, CCLACC was established in 2001 and boasts approximately 450 members, ranging from non-profit organizations to large corporations serving the area. Membership investment is a yearly fee, based on the number of employees and there are categories for business, individuals, retirees, non-profits, school districts, posts offices, fire departments, utilities. The chamber is a 501(c)6 non-profit and is governed by 9 members of a board of directors made up of members representing the three chapters, plus two at-large positions.

“The Mission Statement of The Cedar Creek Lake Area Chamber of Commerce is to attract, promote, and provide benefits for a growing business community.”

Joining the Chamber of Commerce is not an expense, it's an investment!
